Skinny Skribbles

Around And About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKIRVIN

Card comes careening over the Tehachapi and flutters on my desk, just to call attention to its arrival. So I pick 'em up and find that Paul A. Barr, cognomen his name at the bottom, and says he is now attached clerically to the California Motor hotel, at Bakersfield, and for me to stop and say hello if at any time should be my traveling direction. As an inducement Paul says the hotel is scientifically air conditioned, and you can't tell me that isn't an inducement—in Bakersfield. Paul breathed the ozone around Santa Ana for seven years, then migrated. He adds an extra card to the collection, and I am to give it to Bill Ellis, the clerk of it, and knowing Ellis' curiosity he will help me think of it.

Another communication from much farther south of us. Some place in Mexico. Scene, a cafe, and more. An old wife, women and song location. Don't know why any one should send me that kind of a card. I can't even sing at a service club, let alone in old Mexico where the castanets are clicking and skirts whirling to give color and encouragement. My correspondent says: "Oh, how we miss you tonight." Well, if they feel that way about it why in the dickens didn't they take me with 'em?"

Ten members of a service club pledged to bring their mothers with them to a meeting in honor of Mother's day. Those ten members are fortunate to be able to have mother with them. That joy with most of us is only a memory, but what a hallowed one.

Budget balancing is becoming quite a political trick. It can be done if you take in as much money as you spend. Gov. Merriam says he expects by June 30, unless some unforeseen emergency arises, to have the state in the black. I can take any state in the union, or the union itself, and put it in the black, but I'll have the taxpayers in the red if I do it.

Unless "Brick" Gaines was at the Orange dedication of the Santa Fe depot it wasn't official, and we'll have to do it all over again. "Brick" is our county editor and he either goes or is supposed to go just as many places as Ed Ainsworth. When I get so I can walk again I'll make an investigation and find out if the exercises were satisfactory. If not, well, "Brick" and I will rededicate, and you can bet there won't be four hundred people invited to a dinner.

Trunks belonging to Vice-President Garner have been checked from Washington to Uvalde, Tex., which reporters interpret as an early indication of congressional adjournment. Well, some good news should be expected to come out of Washington.

The state must be slipping when we have to go to Wisconsin for leadership for a third party. California has more parties and isms and theories and "what-have-yous" than all the rest of the states combined. If we did overlook this bet no admission should have been made. Let's stand on an undecided record. Like old man Decatur, our state, right or wrong, but our state. There is about as much sense in this advice as there is in a lot of other things we are doing.

Notice a dispatch where the Indians want their land back. Some one should tell them to forget it. It isn't the same land the government took away from them. The dirt isn't much different, but the title is a little cloudy.

This is a great life. I have an infection on my right knee, a boil on the left leg, a Cecil Bruner rose on my coat lapel, the morning paper, a few friends, half a dozen sympathetic relatives, and thankful conditions are no worse. This is a great life, if you escape its afflictions.

Mexico City has been visited by a sharp earthquake. This is the same place from which the American and British oil men got a shock.

Death breaks the seal of silence and Bob Davis, veteran newspaper man, releases the incidents which caused the tragic break in friendship between Woodrow Wilson and Col. Edward House. The incidents were not of House's creation, and he excused the attitude of the then president on the grounds of ill health. To me the important part (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Chiang Routs Weakened Japs

HUGE NIPPON FORCE ON DEFENSIVE

Chinese Claim 34,000 Tokyo Fighters Killed

SHANGHAI (AP)—A general Chinese offensive all along the South Shantung front was declared by the Chinese command to have smashed through the center of the Japanese lines at Taiherchwang today and to have advanced 12 miles.

Chinese advance guards fought forward five miles in a night battle, adding these gains to the seven miles they rolled back and buckled up the Japanese lines in the first assault yesterday.

The field commanders of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek declared the tide of war turning in their favor.

His high command, hopefully awaiting bulletins from the front, said they expected an epochal Japanese defeat similar to that which humbled the divisions of Nippon at Taiherchwang a month ago.

The second great Japanese offensive through Shantung province, this time greatly reinforced to wipe out the previous defeat, was definitely checked, they declared.

Japanese army spokesmen were silent. His high command, hopefully awaiting bulletins from the front, said they expected an epochal Japanese defeat similar to that which humbled the divisions of Nippon at Taiherchwang a month ago.

Chinese sources estimated the weary, outnumbered Japanese army had lost 34,000 men, killed in fighting in recent days about Tancheng and Pishien on the south and west sides of the salient of which Taiherchwang formed the west side.

There was no way, however, of verifying these estimates from neutral sources. A vigorous Chinese army believed to have been reinforced to 500,000 men for the counter assault in Shantung province, sought to put an end once and for all to this phase of the Japanese offensive.

Road Crews Fight To Save Highway From Moving Hill

By the end of this week the state highway maintenance crews will have dumped more than 400 tons of asphaltic fill on the buckled road at the foot of Orange county's moving mountain in Galivut pass.

For the past month now the side of the hill has been moving at the rate of approximately a foot a week. Several hundred tons of fill has already been placed on the humped road and more is needed as new outbreaks appear.

Several highway officials believe the huge mound is more active now than it has been since it began traveling. Actual movement, however, is not perceptible, but the ever-increasing size of the fault and the buckled roadway prove there is a disturbance.

PETITION FILED TO PROVE DEATH

Petitions to establish the death of two missing men were on file today in superior court as a former employer claimed an interest in one estate and a 15-year-old orphan hoped for state aid in the other.

Fifteen-year-old Jesus Dominguez was named in one petition, filed by Kenneth Williamson of the welfare department. The boy, the petition said, needs state aid and cannot get it unless his father, Nicolas, missing since 1923, is legally declared dead.

J. N. Isch filed the other petition asking the court to establish the death of P. J. Nixon, who has not been heard from since Oct. 15, 1918. Mr. Nixon left an estate of one lot at Laguna Beach worth $500, the petition said. Isch, who claims an interest in the estate, asked that Atty. George Tobias be appointed administrator.

Beach Debate Team Hangs on in Race

WOOSTER, O. (AP)—The Santa Monica debate team was included today among the 18 survivors in the National Speech tournament as the sixth round opened. The team has received ratings of "outstanding," "good" and three "excellent" in the five rounds completed.

Scientist Honored

Dr. Carl D. Anderson, well-known as a speaker before local service clubs, is one of fifteen new members of the National Academy of Sciences chosen to that company of the scientific elite in a recent election at Washington, D. C. Anderson two years ago received the Nobel prize for his discovery of the positive electron. He recently talked before the Kiwanis club here.

ALIENATION TRIAL WAITED EBELL CLUB WOMEN MEET

A date for trial of a $25,000 alienation of affections suit against Mrs. Ruby Bush, secretary to City Auditor Lloyd Banks, will be set soon following filing of a request for setting in superior court today.

George W. Zent of Hollywood, attorney for Mrs. Edith P. Crooke, plaintiff in the heart balm suit, filed a request that the case be set for trial.

It has been pending since last July 24, when Mrs. Crooke accused the auditor's secretary of stealing the love of George Arthur Crooke, Los Angeles pipe salesman. Mrs. Bush, in her answer, claims the Crookes had been separated for some time when she met the salesman.

Zent estimated trial of the case, before a jury, would take two days.

Twins, 17 months, Get Two Sisters

DETROIT (AP)—Twin girls, the second set in 17 months, were born Tuesday to Mrs. Warner Murray, 25, in suburban Dearborn.

Both mother and infants were reported progressing satisfactorily. "We had been hoping they would be boys," said Mrs. Murray, "but now that they are here we wouldn't exchange them."

One baby weighs five pounds, the other slightly more.

Movie Contract Cancelled

Differences of opinion over story material led today to the cancellation of Katharine Hepburn's screen contract and the indefinite postponement of W. C. Fields' next film production. Miss Hepburn and R-K-O studios mutually decided on move the studio said.

COUNTY FEARS FOR FLOOD AID PLANS

San Bernardino Rumored Acting Alone

Puzzled officials of Riverside and Orange counties prepared today for a meeting tomorrow at which they hope to learn whether or not San Bernardino county has violated an asserted "gentleman's agreement" for joint action on appeals to Washington for Santa Ana river levee repair work.

A letter from Riverside county officials yesterday indicated that San Bernardino county, instead of following the joint action agreement, had submitted independent requests to Washington for emergency repair work on levees damaged in the March flood.

But, while official circles of the other two counties seethed with indignation, a meeting suddenly was called for tomorrow in Riverside at which San Bernardino county will be represented.

Chairman Willard Smith, of the Orange county board of supervisors, to whom yesterday's surprise letter was addressed, said today the reports about San Bernardino's independent action might have been the result of a misunderstanding. Tomorrow's meeting, which Smith and Flood Control Engineer M. N. Thompson will attend, probably will clarify the issue.

The three counties had agreed to submit joint requests to Washington, asking army engineers for an interim report on flood damage to the levees, with the view of getting an emergency appropriation for restoring the embankments.

Police Aid Proves Boomerang in Slot Machine Recovery

Eddie Zirinsky, bartender at 616 East Fourth street, scratched his head today—wondered if maybe it wouldn't have been smarter to say nothing when his slot machine was stolen early this week.

He told police about the theft, and they promptly arrested J. R. Nugent, 22, 1409 West Third street, who pleaded guilty. He was fined $25 and given a six-month suspended sentence in city court.

Then Zirinsky, the complaining witness, was arrested on charges of having the illegal machine in his possession. He also paid a $25 fine and drew a six-month suspended sentence.

Police Chief Floyd W. Howard and Detective Lieut. C. W. Wolford made both arrests.

PARK PROBLEM UP IN ANAHEIM

Three parking lots to solve Anaheim's downtown parking problem will be discussed at a merchants' meeting tomorrow evening.

Establishment of the lots, at which motorists would either pay a 10-cent fee or have the fee cancelled by purchasing from Anaheim's downtown parking problem will be discussed at a merchants' meeting tomorrow evening.

Less Herron, president of the Anaheim chamber of commerce, will preside at the meeting.

Arguments in Maag Flood Suit Heard

Arguments of attorneys were being heard today by Superior Judge G. K. Scovel in the $10,000 suit of Mrs. Hazel I. Maag for flood damage to her property, which she says was caused by a ditch and pipe line belonging to Ben Yorba.

Mrs. Maag asks $10,000 damages and an injunction against Yorba, claiming the ditch and pipe line caused storm waters to flow across and damage her ranch in the Yorba district. S. B. Kaufman, Robbie Anderson and Adrian Marks, attorneys for Mrs. Maag, and Stanley Reinhaus and A. M. Bradley, counsel for Yorba, were arguing the case.

CHURCH LEADER LOS ANGELES (AP)—L. E. Morrison of Pasadena has been elected president of the California Universalist Church convention.

Damage Suit

Merle Oberon's chauffeur lost in a London court today. The judge decided $25,000 would settle damages incurred in an auto crash. The movie star had sued the driver of the other car, Edward J. Bundy. She contended her chauffeur, Sidney J. Digby, was not at fault. Merle is shown above.

HUNCH LEADS TO ARREST

A deputy sheriff's hunch today led to the arrest of two men and recovery of a car stolen from Fred Womble, 239 Laurel avenue, Brea, less than half an hour after the theft was broadcast by Brea police.

Carl C. Hastings, 35, Brea, and Mack De Berry, 29, Buena Park, were arrested in Buena Park by Deputy James Musick shortly after 10 a. m., with Womble's car assorted packed and ready to leave for Oklahoma.

The sheriff's office has sought Hastings on a non-support warrant for two years, and a "tip" came this morning that he had returned from Texas and could be found at Womble's home in Brea today.

Musick left to pick him up at 9:35 a. m., and at 9:41 o'clock, Brea police broadcast the stolen car report, saying Hastings and DeBerry were wanted for questioning. Musick, who had arrested DeBerry on drunk charges previously, headed directly for Buena Park and arrested the two men as they were buying provisions for what Hastings said was an intended trip to Oklahoma.

PLAVAN ESTATE VALUE, $2500

Leland L. Plavan, Santa Ana rancher who died March 31, left an estate worth less than $2500, according to a petition on file today in superior court.

Mrs. Blanche Plavan, the widow, asked the court for letters of administration or assignment of the entire estate to her. It consists, she said, of a farm lease on 6 acres south of Santa Ana, a half interest in five lots in Riverside county and an interest in Huntington Beach real estate.

JUDGMENT SET IN AUTO CRASH

Judgment for $3101.31 was given by Superior Judge H. G. Ames today against Sophie Grossman, who admitted responsibility for an auto crash last Oct. 15 on Seventeenth street.

Franklin West, attorney for two women plaintiffs, and M. Brokofsky, attorney for the defense, stipulated the accident was Mrs. Grossman's fault. Judge Ames awarded damages of $2205 to Mrs. Gladys Cook, driver of the car which Mrs. Grossman's auto collided, and $896.31 to Mrs. Jessie Bond, a passenger.

Hemophilia Victim Suffers Relapse

Condition of Charles Osborne, Placentia hemophilia victim, was described as "less encouraging" by county hospital attendants today after the youth shed some more blood last night.

A temporary blood clot that had formed in his deficient blood-stream opened up slightly during the night, and Osborne bled slightly for the first time since last Friday when he appeared headed toward recovery.

NEW NAVAL BASE SOUGHT FOR COAST

Beach Chambers to Enlist L. A. Aid

Opening of an active campaign to bring a proposed naval base to the Orange county coast-line was announced last night by members of a Coast association committee following a meeting in Seal Beach.

The coast group, under leadership of City Attorney Burr Brown of Seal Beach, decided to ask for cooperation from the Los Angeles chamber of commerce. Members will call on Los Angeles officials immediately on plans for a campaign to obtain the base.

Approval of the navy appropriation bill probably will bring action on a coast supply base, which at one time was recommended by a naval investigation committee for Alameda in Northern California, members pointed out.

Possibility of using many sites between the Santa Ana river outlet and Seal Beach were discussed by committee members, who believe the navy will be enabled to construct a man-made harbor along the coast, to be used for supply purposes only. Use of existing tidelands and marshy areas inland was urged as a possibility for the proposed harbor.

Attending last night's meeting were Mayor Elmer Hughes and C. A. Miller of Seal Beach; Art Frost of Huntington Beach; Harry Welch and A. B. Rousseau of Newport-Balboa and Charles Bland and K. P. Frederick of Long Beach.

KIDS, FATHER ASK $17,541

Suit by two children and their father for $17,541.89 against damages against the Penn Transfer and Storage company was being heard today by Judge James L. Allen.

The two children, Darlene Yvonne and Barbara Jean Wylie and their father, James C. Wylie, allege a Penn van was parked illegally at right-angle to the curb on South Sycamore street Jan. 30, 1937 when the Wylie car struck it. The van company alleges Wylie's car was in poor condition and could not stop quickly enough.

Darlene Yvonne asks $15,000 damages for permanent injuries to her face, her sister is suing for $2500 for abrasions, and the father asks $41.89 expenses.

Agrees

Countess Barabar Haugwitz-Reventlow, formerly the Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani, (above) agreed with the board of tax appeals today to pay $20,086 income taxes for 1933 in settlement of a deficiency claim of $25,108.

Countess Barabar Haugwitz-Reventlow, formerly the Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani, (above) agreed with the board of tax appeals today to pay $20,086 income taxes for 1933 in settlement of a deficiency claim of $25,108.

Cinco de Mayo Fete Cancelled Here

Orange county Mexicans will not conduct a Cinco de Mayo celebration this year owing to the disastrous effects of the March 3 flood.

Matt Lujan, "mayor" of Delhi, said that many members of the local Mexican colony will attend the celebration tomorrow in Los Angeles, where the Mexican chamber of commerce will conduct a Cinco de Mayo festival.

HITLER VISIT DEPLORED BY VATICAN

Chancellor Confers With Mussolini

VATICAN CITY. (AP)—Pope Pius was quoted by L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, as saying at Castel Gandolfo today that it was "a sad thing" that the insignia of another cross that is not the cross of Christ was hoisted in Rome on Holy Cross Day. Yesterday was Holy Cross Day. It coincided with the arrival in Rome of Adolf Hitler, in whose honor the city was blanketed with the swastika, the Nazi emblem.

The Vatican organ said the Pope beseeched a group of newlyweds to be faithful to Christian life and prayer, "since sad things are happening, very sad things, far and near."

"And among these sad things," he continued, "is this: that it is not considered exceedingly out of place and untimely to hoist in Rome on Holy Cross Day the insignia of another cross that is not the cross of Christ."

"All this is enough to make people understand how much it is necessary to pray, pray and pray that God's mercy be shown and descend in all its greatness."

"We are in fact the first to have need of this infinite mercy of God, which has been extended from the beginning even to those who crucified our Saviour."

AUTOIST HURT IN CAR CRASH

Severely cut and bruised when his car and one driven by Virgil L. Leonard, 349 South Lemon street, Anaheim, collided at Bristol and Edinger streets near Santa Ana last night, A. W. Palmer, 1622 West Second street, was believed recovering in Santa Ana Valley hospital today.

Two other minor accidents were reported yesterday. Ernest Lopp, 17, 322 Homewood avenue, Buena Park, was taken to Cottage hospital, Fullerton, after his motorcycle and a car driven by Clyde McConaughy, 24, 510 South Pomona, Fullerton, collided on 101 highway just north of the Anaheim city limits Sunday.

Eddie Dace, 25, Doheny park, reported the injury of an unknown Mexican pedestrian on 101 highway near San Juan Capistrano Saturday night. Dace's car became stuck in the mud after the accident, he told California highway patrolmen, and another car took the injured man toward San Clemente.

COUNTY PLANS TEACHER CLASS

If Orange county public school teachers are unable to go to college outside the county, the college will be brought to them under a plan outlined today by Fred W. Bewley of Orange.

Provided a sufficient number of teachers show interest in Bewley's proposal, classes will be organized shortly after the close of school under the instruction of college and university educators who will come into the county to present the courses.

Fisherman Hauls In Trout, Snake

BARRE, Vt. (AP)—With a single cast of his line Dr. H. A. Raw pulled in an 8½-inch trout and a nine-inch snake.

The doctor was about to place the fish in his creel when the head of the snake appeared from the fish's mouth.

GENERAL MOTORS PRESIDENT RAPS NATIONAL LABOR BOARD

Knudsen Says Wagner Act Is Drawback To Business in United States

WASHINGTON. (AP)—William S. Knudsen, president of General Motors corporation, told the United States Chamber of Commerce today that the Wagner labor act is "the largest drawback to good industrial relations."

140 TEACHERS QUIT JOBS IN REDLANDS AREA

REDLANDS. (AP)—Superintendent John Brangan announced nearly one-third of the 140 teachers in the Redlands school system have "resigned" effective at the June close of the present term.

He said contracts for next year have not been given to 45 instructors, 12 in high school. Some, he said, had been dropped to prevent acquisition of tenure, provided under state law after three years' consecutive service.

School board meetings, he said, henceforth will be closed to the public, as well as to teachers. He said his office would pass on all news of school activities and "when I consider something is ready for the public, I will dictate a statement."

Among those whose contracts will not be renewed is William H. Maxwell, football coach and former athlete of the University of California at Los Angeles.

SKINNY SKRIBBLES

(Continued from Page 1) of the entire incident. Davis' territorial silence, which he only broke after the death of the only two men familiar with the circumstances. I still like to think we have newspaper men who accept a confidence and keep it.

A cinema producer is home from Europe convinced that movie stars in America are getting too much money, and you won't have any trouble convincing the movie star that the producer isn't getting his full share.

Anyway, we've found out we won't go to France. All national taxes have been lifted eight per cent. The tips were high enough.

The boys who drive both sane and insane for the Indianapolis speedway classic on Memorial day are headed for the Indiana city for try-outs. It's been a long time since I witnessed an automobile race. Not since the days of Tompkins and Roscoe Searls and other dare-devils on the rubber-racing. Watching those fellows test their physical strength and the product of engineers is an exciting event. You couldn't eat a sandwich without getting indigestion. About all you get out of it was a nerve test. But for real human and mechanical punishment it has all the thrills. However, you do not need to get into the Indianapolis speedway race to get killed. They're hauling them in from every town and hamlet in the country.

I'm getting so I dislike to pick up the Monday morning papers. They are filled with highway fatalities, and often of such gory nature that a careful driver almost concludes not to spend any part of Sunday in automobile touring. It isn't the fault of the car. The manufacturers have made the safest vehicle ever placed on the cement, but you can take a safe car and let a reckless person drive it, and someone is going to be killed.

Probate Is Asked For J. W. Day Will

Probate of the will of the late James W. Day who died April 7 in Fullerton, was asked today in a superior court petition by Herman L. Shellenberger of Los Angeles.

The will leaves the estate, valued at less than $10,000, to two sisters, Mrs. Grace Holmes of Lyons, Kans., and Mrs. Tillie Nordstrom of Fullerton, who get cash bequests of $500 each in addition to a third each of the residue, and to a niece, 10-year-old Carol Fay Shellenberger of Los Angeles, who gets one-third of the residue.

Alderman Leaves $25,483.87 Estate

A. A. Alderman of Tustin, who died April 12, left property worth $25,483.87 in joint tenancy with his wife, according to a report today by Inheritance Tax Appraiser Howard Irwin.

The widow, Mrs. Leona Alderman, also will get his personal estate, valued at less than $10,000, under terms of his will. Property held by them jointly, Irwin reported, included ranch and business property in Tustin, $6250 in stock of the Ut Development company, and a sales agreement for Mr. Alderman's former hardware store, valued at $8327.91.

POPE DEPLORES NAZI DISPLAY

HITLER OPENS VISIT WITH IL DUCE PARLEY ROME. (AP)—Fuehrer Hitler began a week's heavily charged program as Italy's guest today by paying homage to Italy's kings and her unknown soldier, who lies in the vast white Vittorio Emanuele monument in Venezia square.

The Fuehrer laid a wreath at the soldiers' tomb while bands blared and his party saluted. They then went to Capitoline hill to salute the monument to fallen Fascists.

Premier Mussolini called for his guest at Quirinale palace in an automobile at 9:55 a. m. Thirty-five minutes later, followed by 15 cars, they rode through the streets lined with guards and modest-sized early morning crowds.

The two dictators found two periods in the festive round for man-to-man talk on the purposes of their Nazi-Fascist friendship, and an informed source said their exchange dealt entirely with colonies.

There was half an hour at the Quirinale before the morning tour and an hour afterward, also at the palace.

Hitler, who repeatedly has declared Germany's determination to regain her war-lost colonies, was said to have done most of the talking.

Mussolini, who has described Italy as satisfied with the creation of her empire following the conquest of Ethiopia, listened.

This source said Czechoslovakia, Europe's latest trouble center, was not mentioned.

U. S. Chamber Set To Name Directors

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The chamber of commerce of the United States will elect 18 new members of its board of directors tomorrow. Nominations, made by the chamber's national council and virtually tantamount to election, include:

Thomas J. Strickler, Kansas City; F. A. Irish, Fargo, N. D.; Roger D. Lapham, San Francisco; James W. Spangler, Seattle; James X. Owens, Oklahoma City.

Sheepmen of northern California report that their lambs are being carried off by eagles.

Kaiser Gives Blessing to Pair at Royal Wedding

DOORN, The Netherlands. (AP)—An imperial figure in the uniform of a commander of the Lifeguard Hussars, the 79-year-old former Kaiser of Germany, today gave the official Hohenzollern blessing to the marriage of his grandson and Grand Duchess Kyra of the Russian Romanoffs.

VETERANS PLAN MEMORIAL FETE

Memorial day plans were outlined by Calumit camp, United Spanish War Veterans, at a business meeting in the Knights of Columbus hall last night.

The camp accepted the invitation of the Rev. A. S. Bash to attend Memorial Sunday services May 29 at the Orange Avenue Christian church, and members also will hold a special service at the Melrose Abbey mausoleum. Thomas F. Morrissey, Santa Ana, was mustered into the camp last night and gave a short talk. Commander Albert P. Dresser appointed a committee to arrange for the camp's 16th anniversary, Aug. 5. Committeemen include Walter W. Tantlinger, chairman; and Charles E. Dixon, Charles E. Waffle, U. Sherman Glaze and Edward E. Patmor.

Accidents Greatest Menace To Health, Red Cross Hears

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—One of the greatest health problems confronting the American people is that of stopping the "terrible toll of avoidable accidents," American Red Cross delegates were told at their annual convention here today.

Jackie's Mother Seeks Peace in Estate Battle

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The olive branch has been extended by Mrs. Arthur L. Bernstein to her son, Jackie Coogan, but the one-time child film star today showed no disposition to accept it.

Coogan has sued his mother and stepfather for an accounting of his screen earnings as a minor. He estimates them at $4,000,000.

Mrs. Bernstein declared that if she retains control of her son's estate she will make a "fair settlement" with him.

"These proceedings are unnecessary," she said. "If Jackie had contacted me before filing the suit, I am sure we could have ironed out the difficulties."

"Jackie's charges against my husband are groundless and unfair. He knows that Mr. Bernstein has never claimed an interest in the money he earned, and never will."

Jackie announced yesterday the receipt of a letter from Ada U. Bank of Brooklyn, N. Y., saying that was the secretary to William Grossman, New York attorney, now dead, when the late John Coogan and his wife consulted him about establishing a trust fund for their actor-son.

"This is especially significant when it is considered that my mother said in her disposition that she recalled no plans for a trust fund to preserve my earnings," Jackie commented.

METHODISTS PLAN UNITY

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—In the face of "the southern demagoguery" the judicial council of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, ruled today a conference-approved plan to unify American Methodism.

The nine-member "supreme court" of the southern denomination ruled the quadrennial conference now in session was within its rights in voting the southern church into a tri-partite union to create a new church of some 8,000,000 members.

The council decision removed the last ecclesiastical barrier to the unification.

Anti-unificationists, who raised again the negro question that split the church in 1844, contended the merger violates their laws of religion.

The conference elected seven new bishops yesterday. All said they favored unification.

AFL TO AID IN L. A. PROBE

WASHINGTON. (AP)—California labor leaders today had the promise of the AFL executive council to help them obtain an investigation by the senate Civil Liberties committee into "open shop" activities in Los Angeles.

William Green, AFL president, said J. W. Buzzell, secretary of the Los Angeles Central Labor council, and C. J. Haggerty, president of the California State Federation of Labor, told the executive council that certain employers had started a "systematic campaign against collective bargaining and the right of the workers to organize."

"We attribute this action to the fact that Los Angeles always was an open shop town and they want to keep it that way," Green said.

MOTORSHIP ELI RUNS AGROUND

MANILA, P. I. (AP)—The Norwegian motorship Eli, bound for the United States with 5700 tons of copra, went aground off Tantalapoint, north of Samar island during a severe storm last night.

The vessel was badly damaged and its number one hold flooded. The United States destroyer Edwards responded to an SOS call and stood by until a tug arrived.

An effort will be made to refloat the freighter operated by the International Shipping company.

In addition to a crew of about 30, the 380-foot motorship carried the 10-year-old daughter of the captain and wife of the chief engineer. All were reported safe.

Winner of Peace Award Succumbs

BERLIN. (AP)—Carl Von Ossietzky, 48, German pacifist who was awarded the Nobel peace prize for 1935, died today of meningitis in a Berlin sanitarium.

Ossietzky was confined to a German concentration camp in 1934, shortly after Adolf Hitler and the Nazi regime came to power. He became ill, and was released Nov. 17, 1936, some months after he had been nominated for the Nobel prize.

Foreign military observers conceded the Japanese were in a precarious position along the jagged line of many salients and that if the Chinese offensive continued vigorously it might push the Japanese back many miles over bloodily-won territory and end their threat at the Lungai railway.

Besides the serious break in Japanese lines northeast of Tai-chung, Chinese reported a flying column moved around the Japanese left flank and cut their communication lines between Tancheng and Lini to the rear.

Japanese struck back in the ferocious air raid upon Suchow, Chinese base and junction of the east-west Lungai line and the north-south Tientsin-Pukow railway.

Chinese reported 70 killed and wounded and 200 houses burned and destroyed in the raid.

The fighting on the Shantung front was spreading westward from the main sector, with severe engagements reported in the hilly regions south of Yihien near the Tientsin-Pukow line.

Stories of individual heroism were brought back from the front. Under the personal orders of General Chiang, it was related, a Chinese officer disguised as a

NEW DEAL WINS VICTORY IN FLORIDA PRIMARY CONTEST

Senator Claude Pepper Re-Nominated In First Test Of Roosevelt Support

By the Associated Press Renomination of Senator Claude Pepper of Florida gave the Roosevelt administration a victory today in the first 1938 primary test of the President's popular support. Shortly after he easily defeated four other candidates in the Democratic race, Pepper issued a statement calling on the people of his state to join forces with Mr. Roosevelt in restoring "a genuine and permanent prosperity."

NEW MONETARY SETUP SEEN IN CAPITAL PARLEY

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Renewed discussions at the treasury today with French and British financial experts indicated an early announcement on modified monetary relationships between the three countries.

Secretary Morgenthau received Paul Leroy-Beaulieu, financial attaché of the French embassy, and T. K. Bewley, financial counselor of the British embassy. Yesterday he also talked to Count Rene de Saint-Quentin, French ambassador.

Unofficial accounts of the conversations indicated they related both to possible stabilization of the franc at somewhat less than its present value of about 3.06 cents in American money and foreign exchange control in France to prevent further outflows of capital.

Such exports of money from France in the last year has caused market depreciation of the franc.

Under the tri-partite agreement of 1936, the three countries expressed their opposition to foreign exchange control and modification of the agreement appeared to be necessary before France could take such a step.

The French ambassador was believed in financial quarters to have brought to Morgenthau yesterday proposals for devaluing and stabilizing the franc at some figure below its current market value of 3.06 cents in American money.

One Paris report said the French proposed a price of 2.97 cents.

peasant, entered the Japanese-occupied town of Tenghsien and recovered the body of General Wang Min-Cheng, commander of the 11th Szechuan division, who was killed there a month ago. His body was smuggled out to be taken to Hankow for memorial services.

Mobile tactics had almost succeeded in establishing a buffer zone 50 miles wide on the north side of the Yellow river in Honan and Shansi provinces.

Japanese, however, still held positions in a few strategic spots on the north bank from which they continued sporadic shelling of Chinese positions along the Lungai railway on the south side.

Incumbent house members in Alabama, Florida, South Dakota and Indiana who sought renomination were leading on the basis of incomplete returns. This group included Representative Virginia women representatives.

Indiana voters also chose delegates to June conventions which will select senatorial nominees.

Speaker Bankhead was unopposed in his Alabama district. In one Alabama contest attracting widespread attention, Representative Joe Starnes was leading former Senator Thomas J. Heflin, who was trying a political comeback.

JIM WENT TO THE CELLAR

Last night Jim, our next-door neighbor, went to the cellar and looked over his last year's porch furniture. His appraising eye saw all the scratches and wear given the chairs last year by his three growing boys.

Jim decided that he needed some paint and a new brush; and planned to take that furniture out in the back yard next Saturday afternoon for the annual cleaning-up process.

Curious, but men all over the country are now thinking of paint, and seeds, and outdoor games. And—a new hat, a new suit and some new shirts.

And maybe the women don't feel the urge to buy new things!

And why shouldn't they? Why be content with old things when there is money for new? Merchants are offering the latest goods of all sorts in the advertisements in this newspaper. Go to them as you would to old friends. You can rely upon their descriptions of every article.

RAMBLING
ORANGE
—with—
T. N.
(BRICK)
GAINES

Taking a peek into the Cat Department files, I discovered a couple of unused cat tales.

They both come from Orange. And include ordinary cat, grandmother cats' mothers-in-law and cats' kittens.

And if you're not feline well, you'd better skip to some other part of the paper.

Cat story No. 1:

A group of Orange clubwomen were talking of cats one day. (I said "of," not "like.")

This story popped out. Names can't be used, just like they usually aren't in tall fish stories.

However, two momma cats belonging to neighbors of the story-tellers each had kittens at about the same time. One became the proud mother of two kittens and the other three.

The momma cat with two kittens lost her children. They died almost immediately.

The other momma cat didn't lose her kittens—at least not at once. Because Momma Cat No. 1 traveled clear across a five-acre orange grove, scooped up one of the little's and took it home with her.

Catnaping, huh?

She raised it as her own, and the little critter grew up to be a pillar of the cat community.

Momma Cat No. 2 didn't seem to miss her missing child. Mebbe she just didn't care. However, her two remaining offspring also grew up to be staunch republicans, or whatever cats are in Orange.

Which goes to prove that all's well that ends well, if you can get away with it!

Cat story No. 2:

The same group of clubwomen were still discussing the feline situation when the following short-story arrived:

This story concerned a momma cat, a grandmomma cat, five little cats, and two people.

When five little cats arrive in a household already cluttered with a momma cat and a grandmomma cat, something must be done.

So this family sat around the dinner table discussing the situation, while the momma cat, in the care of her all-too-numerous children, and grandmomma cat listened apprehensively.

Ways and means of lessening the feline population were discussed, and the family finally voted to drown the cats. At which grandmomma cat groaned curses and died.

While later the official cat-downer-awards of the family approached the feline maternity hospital to perform his sad duty. Where five kittens had bloomed before, now there were only three!

He naturally decided that another member of the family already had started upon the sad task, so took the remaining three and performed his heartbreaking task via the water bucket.

And the little kittens were almost forgotten.

Several weeks later, grandmomma cat showed up with the remaining two, intact and in first-class condition. She'd spirited 'em away and kept 'em in hiding until the danger was over.

The moral to that'n seems to be if you're a little kitten, it pays to have a grandmomma cat around the house, just in case!

Ed Ainsworth, who spoke at the Junior college journalism banquet last night, crossed me up in his speeches.

Ed usually either makes speech No. 1, No. 2 or No. 3. Last night he started with No. 2, tossed in a little of No. 1, and then ended up with a brand new story! Which is a dirty trick to play on a guy when he's just getting set to enjoy himself!

The high school and junior college students really got a break in hearing Ed's talk. He threw in some real leg's, and made it most amusing. They were listening to probably the best known newspaperman in this part of the state, at least.

And I'm for more scrambled speeches!

Renewed an old-time acquaintance at the dinner last night, too. Tom Williams, who's now a famous printer.

Tom ran a printing plant in Fullerton when I was a wet-behind-the-ears budding journalist. He had the misfortune to be named official printer for our high school paper. And I'll bet he could have scalped the lot of us a dozen times!

I still think Tom taught us more about the newspaper business than the books did!

TOWNSEND NEWS, VIEWS

By WALTER R. ROBB

(This column deals with Townsend news and views. Any opinions which are expressed herein are not necessarily those of The Journal.)

The Associated Press saw sufficient significance in Dr. Francis E. Townsend's being the speaker before a meeting of American Federation of Labor groups in Chicago last Sunday, to make a news bulletin of it. The doctor was quoted as talking straight from the shoulder to the labor audience by telling them that the unions had assumed selfish attitudes toward the rest of the public. He deprecated the fact that their constant demands were forcing employers to reduce the number of men employed and added that it was a "national curse to be forced to support people in unemployment." The doctor was quoted as having said "We must have a national policy that will say there will be no unemployed in the United States." The news bulletin didn't state the number of men who were in the audience but I have been informed that between three and four thousand union men from Chicago and Northern Illinois were expected to be present to hear the Townsend leader and Reuben Sederstrom, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor, who was scheduled to appear on the program with the doctor.

Judge M. C. Summers of Los Angeles who is well known to Orange county Townsend audiences has been touring the state of Washington of late in a series of mass meetings. Monday's edition of the Townsend Weekly says: "He is appearing before chambers of commerce and other civic organizations as well as Townsend clubs, and finds enthusiasm everywhere for the enactment of the Plan."

This column calls attention to the month of May meeting of the Orange County Townsend Club. Officers' association being held at 7:30 tonight in the Santa Ana Townsend hall at 509 West Fourth street with W. J. Pickering, president, in charge. All Townsend speakers, past, and present Townsend club officers and members of the association and are invited to be present.

LINDSAY, Okla.—Ovie Battles' big feet were his downfall. Sheriff A. J. Beddo, investigating a cattle theft, found large footprints.

"Oh, oh," he said. "I don't know but one man in this county with feet that big, Ovie Battles."

He said Battles confessed and implicated another man. Both were sentenced to two years in prison.

PLANS AGLAY
HOUSTON, Tex.—Enrique Planes told the jury he wanted to go to prison because the state would pay him $50 when he was released and then he could marry the girl he had courted for 13 years.

"I thought I'd get a two-year sentence for attempted robbery," he said.

But the jury blighted his hopes. He got 42 years.

WANTED: SKUNK TAILS
DES MOINES, Ia.—The Iowa Works Progress administration seeks, of all things, six skunk tails.

Officials said they want the tails to reproduce an authentic headress of Chief Black Hawk, one of the 1000 costumes WPA workers are making for the Iowa Centennial pageants this summer. WPA designers said it will take about six tails to duplicate the bristling headress of the chief of the Sac and Fox.

CHEATING DEATH
DUBUQUE, Ia.—A steer which escaped from the yards of a packing company here put one over on Dubuque swimmers who vie to be the first to swim the Mississippi river each spring.

The steer swam the river and was located two miles inland on the Illinois side.

Section Work Portrayed At Club

Informality and fun reigned supreme at yesterday's meeting of Santa Ana Woman's club when a parade of sections was presented with Mrs. F. A. Martin acting as program chairman. Mrs. G. V. Linsenbard, leader of Philanthropy, presented her daughter Jeanne in section work, with Prof. Linsenbard at the piano. A Mother's day section was sung with Mrs. Matthews, gowned in black, sitting on the stage in the posture of Whistler's mother, and looking very much like the picture.

Drama section with Mrs. Earl Ladd as leader presented a clever skit, "The Lost Clipping" in which Mrs. M. O. Wells assigned parts. Taking part in the skit were the Mesdames G. W. Paes, William Kuhn, W. E. Dennis and Leonard Holman taking part.

Mrs. E. A. Elwell's homestead section lined up in front of the club members with products of their handwork to show, and recited a clever poem fitting the occasion.

Miss Blanche Seely, on behalf of Poetry section, read a group of poems written recently by section members. Many lovely selections were heard, which were the work of Mrs. Minnie Collins, Mrs. Margaret Church, Mrs. Anna Hossfeld, Mrs. Bertha Braden, Mrs. E. G. Warner, Mrs. Edna Jones, and Mrs. Harry Barker. Mrs. Brackett's poem has been set to music by her son, it was announced.

Social section enacted a tea party on the stage at a card table set for refreshments. Mrs. L. E. Tarbox, Mrs. E. M. Waycott, Miss Blanche Seely, and Mrs. J. E. Page, Mrs. P. R. Arnold led a group of study section gave a report of their year's activities.

The afternoon closed with a lovely tea, of which Mrs. Kuhn was chairman. The tea table was spread with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of yellow and orange nasturtiums. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Braden, Mrs. E. Wilson, Mrs. Paes and Mrs. S. E. Littrell. Mrs. C. R. Walter and Mrs. Wilson poured.

Reception of new members will take place at the next meeting at which time garden section will present a flower show. Mrs. Braden and Mrs. Waycott were named to attend the Musical Arts concert this week as representative of the Women's club.

At the business meeting which preceded the program of the afternoon it was decided to establish a Bible section in the club. Following much discussion, the club voted on the section, stipulating that the Bible was to be studied strictly as literature in this group.

The American field army was voted $1 from the club treasury for the cause of cancer fighting. Mrs. Waycott gave a report for the sick committee, saying that several members were ill, but that calls had been made upon them and flowers taken. All members were asked to turn in their correct addresses and phone numbers for next year's club book.

ANNUAL DINNER GIVEN BY DORCAS SOCIETY

Melodies of Spring as a motif was enjoyed by more than 130 mothers and daughters at an annual banquet sponsored this week by Dorcas society of the First Christian church.

Tables were decked with sweet-peas and a delightful garden scene was created on the stage as background for Mrs. Roch Bradshaw, talented harpist who played softly during the affair. A golden harp was reproduced on each placecard, too.

The program later featured an invocation by Mrs. Horace Leecy, a welcome by Mrs. John Mills, and introduction of Mrs. Ed Hagthorn as toastmistress by Mrs. Harry Becker, president.

Mrs. John Geiger gave the toast to mothers, and Mrs. Charles George responded for them. After lovely solos by Mrs. G. Willard Bassett and a reading by Miss Faire Virgin, Mrs. F. E. Coulter was presented as guest speaker, and gave a charming talk on "Choosing Our Pattern."

Mrs. William Humphreys served as general chairman of the event, and was assisted by a committee composed of the Mesdames Rex McGill, Ray Adkinson, Josie Wilson, Loren Spencer, Fred Perryman, Charles Lawrence, and T. E. Williams.

Bride Elect Is Honor Guest At Tea

A trio of intimate friends of Mrs. John McAuley entertained yesterday afternoon at a low shower and tea at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hoy, 1225 French street, honoring Miss Jean McAuley, daughter of Mrs. McAuley, who is to become the bride of Chris Ema this spring.

Mrs. Herbert Walker and Mrs. Arthur McFadden were co-hostesses with Mrs. Hoy at the charming affair. Guests invited were former neighbors of Miss McAuley, and a group of her mother's friends. The Hoy home was beautifully decorated with bouquets of mixed spring flowers with snapdragons predominating, which came from the garden of Mrs. John Henderson, who also arranged the flowers. One lovely bridal bouquet of snow balls and white Watsonia lilies were set in the living room.

The afternoon was spent embroidering a set of tea towels and a delightful hour ensued with delicious refreshments served daintily by the hostesses. Miss McAuley received a group of lovely gifts.

The guest list included the Mesdames John McAuley, Lida Ema, William Hill, Isabel Little, John Henderson, Elsie Millman, Frank Was, Harry Warner, Walter B. Jones, A. K. Keen, Martin Warren, C. E. Harris, Eugene Mackenney, and the Misses May Pulham, Eva Marshall, Evelyn Walker, Wilma Hoy and Flora McFadden, all of Santa Ana; Mrs. Ralph Raitt of Placentia, Mrs. Belle Marshall and Miss Nancy Marshall of Los Angeles.

SURPRISE IS GIVEN AT STAR DINNER

Hermosa chapter of Eastern Star arranged a jolly surprise for Fred Pope, worthy patron, when they met Monday evening for a potluck supper at the Masonic temple.

A four-foot table with a raised base centered the table and lights in the star point colors were at each point. The flat surface of the star held a beautiful green, yellow and white frosted birthday cake set in a bed of fern. Tall candles in holders were at each point.

Spring bouquets of May baskets were at each end of the table and five colored streamers fastened down tight to the tablet emanated from the baskets. This was an original decoration idea of Helen Luker, worthy matron, who was assisted by Dolly Pope and Dr. James Workman.

Dinner committee was composed of Eddie and Ethel Gritton, Lois Pearson, Polly Blower, Mary I. Myers, Minnie Harris, Margaret Brown, Clara Tolifer, Anna Ashford and Deborah Porter. Fannie Reeves, on behalf of the past matrons, presented the group with five crosses of paper dolls and 1000 fold napkins.

The group sang "Happy Birthday to Fred Pope" while the cake was being cut, and then the group adjourned to the chapter room for a meeting with a presentation by Helen Luker, worthy matron and worthy patron, respectively.

Hermine Lowe, worthy matron of the Yorba Linda chapter was escorted east and then gave the farewell message to lodge members. Visitors introduced at the meeting were H. M. Tedford of Ramon, Star chapter, Monterey Park; Bertha E. Meyers of Tulare chapter, Corrine J. Davis of Ada chapter, Auburn Neb., and Cleone Chandler of Santa Ana chapter.

At the close of the meeting, officers returned to return in a darkened room in drill formation, carrying colonial bouquets with flashlights hidden in the center of them. Helen Luker carried a large bouquet of red roses and the other bouquets were made of sweet peas.

SCHOOLMATES OF FORMER DAYS ENJOY DINNER

A happy reunion of former classmates was enjoyed Monday night when a group of ex-pupils at Greenville school got together to participate in a dinner at Greenville's home, Fred Clark and Mrs. Clark of Alameda. The former was a former local youth, and his wife are guests of cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speed.

Enjoying the gay affair were Mr. and Mrs. L. Tedford, Mrs. Leonard Garbutt, Miss Eddie Tedford, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wakeham, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nickolls, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Phillips, Miss Berta Armstrong, Mrs. Minnie Baxter, Miss Frances Tedford, Miss Virginia Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speed, Miss Mary Wakeham, and Mr. and Mrs. Doc Ellis.

T-I-D-B-I-T-S...

By DR. MARY E. WRIGHT

That talented young man, Burr Shafer, has met success along a new line lately. For a few months he has been drawing cartoons and has sold his work to the "Coast Magazine" of San Francisco, and to "Down Beat," a musical magazine with offices in Chicago. He has success to his credit in oil painting and in photography, and does well whatever he attempts.

In the patio of the Santora building I saw one of the most beautiful brunettes I've seen in Orange county, and later learned that it was Mrs. George Swift Harper of Orange. Her white silk gown printed with big black flowers, and a wide black hat were most becoming.

Young Billy Mention is a musical lad and plays the harmonica in the grammar school orchestra. His dad bought him one of the tiny harmonicas with but five notes, and already he has learned to play 16 tunes on the small instrument.

Met Ethel Lockwood one day lately and noticed how becoming her gown of dark rose printed silk was, with her dark eyes and hair. The gold chain and beautiful garnet cross she wore depending from it were an outstanding adornment.

Miss Mary Bowyer's pedigreed mare, "Maid Marion" was mared by the flood out by the river. Three young men assisted in rescuing the fine animal. Two weeks later, the mare foaled, and the beautiful colt is called Maid's Minx.

Spring is a time for new life. Even the dried, cracked old stumps of the big bignonia bush in the courthouse annex ground which fell and had to be cut off, are all sprouting lovely new foliage.

Dr. Perry Davis received the following letter lately from a friend: "Some fellows can get away with anything. There's one in our neighborhood who does. Morals don't mean a thing to him. He's unmarried, and lives openly with a woman he is crazy about, and doesn't care what the neighbors say or think. He doesn't vote, and never thinks of paying a bill. He neglects his appearance terribly. He's so indolent he'd let the house burn down before he'd turn in an alarm. Even on such a controversial subject as the liquor question, no one knows exactly where he stands, one minute he's dry and the next minute he's wet. But we'll say this for him, in spite of all his faults he comes from a darn good family. He's our new baby, Jon Paul Stedley."

Dr. Davis and Dr. Paul Standley, his chum, had a wager as to who would "pass the cigars" first. Robert Lynn Davis was too smart for young "Jon" and "crossed the line" first, ahead of schedule.

Saw Marie Timmons in her Main street office "Busy as a bee" for the Horse Show. She is a fine organizer and will help make the league benefit a big success.

Speaking of horses, little Glenna Jean Dearthoff is happy in the possession of her new riding horse, "Golden Sun" is a five-gaited sorrel and is in the hands of a trainer, Gene Able, of Meadovale. Glenna Jean was so anxious to get her pet home to ride that she took a red rose to the trainer and asked if she couldn't ride him NOW. His answer was, "You can ride him WHEN you CAN ride him."

When M. H. Poppett came from San Bernardino to take charge of a paint store here, he brought his charming wife, a beautiful blonde, who dresses in excellent taste. She was present at a recent function gowned in luggage tan with a like colored hat, and the hat had the gaucho chin strap, so hard to wear. It simply enhanced Mrs. Poppett's loveliness.

The R. G. Tuthills are happy in the new home that has come to Roberta. She has been elected to "Cap and Gown" honor society at Stanford, and is one of 25 among the 1200 women students. The requirements are scholastic standing and some outstanding work for the college. She has been the successful president of Laguna dormitory which houses 200 women.

One of the interesting things about living is the opportunity for pleasant contacts and bits of interesting knowledge shared. Seated beside that distinguished looking lady, Mrs. Richard Ewert in a movie, on the program was a "Terry Toon" for children. She told me she knew the Terry brothers who evolved the idea for the films. Later in a news film, our

Juniors Plan May Dance and Luncheon

Los Serranos Country club near Chino has been chosen as site of this year's spring dance to be enjoyed by Junior Ebelles May 27, it was announced last night at the group's final evening business meeting of the year by Mrs. Carleton Smith, dance chairman. The affair will be a dinner dance, semi-formal, with serving beginning promptly at 8 p. m. and with dining and dancing to be enjoyed intermittently. Music will be provided by the Country club orchestra, which is becoming increasingly popular among Southland club groups.

Mrs. Smith also announced to the group, meeting in the lounge of the clubhouse, that Mrs. Clyde Higgins is ticket chairman, and is being assisted by the Mesdames William Gray, Paul Hales, Paul Howe, George Preble, Daniel Jones, Alvin Stauffer, Leroy Burns, Thomas Rhone, and Miss Ruth Fitz.

Mrs. Albert Harvey presided at the business session and asked Mrs. James Merigold, chairman of the June luncheon, to make preliminary announcement of that annual affair, which is the final Ebell session of the year, and which will feature installation of new officers, who were formally elected last night, with Miss Betty Smith as incoming president.

The luncheon will be held June 4 at Santa Ana Country club, and all reservations must be in by June 1.

Of equal interest was announcement made by Mrs. John P. Scripps of a benefit bridge party to be given May 25 by Travel and Riding sections. The affair is to start with a dessert course at the E. F. Elstrom home, proceed to bridge at the Scripps home, and end with a tea at the home of Mrs. Valvin Flint across the street on Heliotrope drive.

Motifs of three different countries will be carried out, and the affair is expected to be most enjoyable. Also announced to the membership at large, was a total contribution of $150 from Juniors and Seniors, for the purpose of buying raptures for the Peacock room.

A resume of life in Hollywood and motion picture statistics was presented by Lillian Snell of that city, red-headed publicity artist, studio worker, who was introduced by Mrs. Robert Guild.

Climax to the evening came with a delightful tea course served in the board-room, with Miss Smith and Mrs. George Walker, incoming first vice-president, presiding over the lace-clothed tea table with its effective centerpiece of baby's breath from which rose a crown arrangement of pale pink tapers.

Serving as hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Donald Harwood, Mrs. Edna Wainwright, Mrs. Bruce Anderson, Mrs. Robert U. Smith, and Mrs. Walter Bacon. Mrs. Worth Babbitt, a new member, assisted.

PROSPECTUS IS ISSUED ON GARDEN TOUR

Flags waving in the breeze will mark nine of Santa Ana's loveliest gardens to better direct patrons of the annual garden tour and tea sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. this coming Saturday. The affair is one of the most unusual and delightfully different projects of the year, and will last from two until five o'clock, ending with a tea at the Hugh Gerrard home, 2009 Victoria drive.

Ted Blanding, landscape expert, today issued a prospectus on the garden tour, which follows, and which will be valuable if clipped and saved.

Mrs. A. W. Metzger's, 1237 South Birch, cottage garden of American Colonial type, with arbors and fences and use of appropriate colors in foliage and flower. Dr. J. M. Bulpitt's, 1719 Heliotrope drive, an English house with its summer house and brick wall enclosure broken by rich green of foliage and splashes of color of annuals and perennials; Mrs. R. S. Chandler's, 1911 Heliotrope drive, a Colonial garden with a formal setting. The back gardens reflect the formality with short bordered vistas and a cutting and rose garden arranged on an axis.

Mrs. John Scripps's, 1920 Heliotrope drive, latticed enclosed rose garden with colonial arbors and gates. A large swimming pool adjoins the living terrace of the house; Mrs. E. G. Sumner's, 2301 North Flower, a very new garden planted only six months. It shows an excellent choice of color arrangement. The enclosed back garden may be viewed from the terrace with its open fireplace; Mrs. J. Clyde Horton's, 2360 North Park boulevard, French Provincial garden having appropriate planting, walks and stone work. The rear garden with its wealth of color, pool and living terrace is embraced by a typical French fence of split chestnut. This garden has been planted one year; Mrs. Hiram M. Currey's, 2102 North Ross, a small garden with roses and iris. This garden shows how beauty and practicality can be combined by introducing a terrace, the barbecue area and a playground for two small children; Mrs. Alice Peterson's, 2204 Greenleaf, a shady garden at the back of the house furnishes a cool retreat during the summer months as the lawn swings and its furniture.

FAWNS' COLORING The white spots which are the protective coloration on fawns last until they are four or five months of age.

FAHOLO PARTY Faholo class of the First Baptist church will have a Mother's day party at the church Monday, May 9 at 7:30 p. m.

TREY OF HEARTS

Three big hearts, bound in red sawtooth braid, make the sole accent for the bodice of a soft blue wool frock. They are centered by a slide fastening which runs under the belt to the hem of the dress.

QUARTET USES MEXICAN THEME AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Sharpless and Mr. and Mrs. W. Maxwell Burke united in entertaining at a delightful dinner party in the Sharpless home on Newport road. The Mexican motif was used, and each of the small tables was covered with a red checked cloth and centered with a Mexican blue glass bowl containing a single vivid red cactus bloom.

After the contract bridge which concluded the evening prizes of striking basketry and pottery, collected by the Sharplesses on a recent trip, were presented Mrs. W. D. Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowen, Mr. and Mrs. George Sattler, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Winbiger, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swales, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal King, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. McFadden, Mrs. J. S. Smart, and Arthur Cornwall of La Jolla.

Guests of the host quartet were Mr. and Mrs. Allen V. Elston, Dr. and Mrs. John Wehrly, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wainwright, Mrs. W. D. Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lasby, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowen, Mr. and Mrs. George Sattler, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Winbiger, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swales, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal King, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. McFadden, Mrs. J. S. Smart, and Arthur Cornwall of La Jolla.

SYCAMORES TURN OUT FOR GAY CARD PARTY

The home of Mrs. Alfreda Olson was the charming setting for a card party attended by Sycamore members yesterday afternoon. The Olson home was decorated with a number of fragrant bouquets of pastel colored sweet peas. A delicious dessert course was served before the afternoon of cards by Mrs. Olson and her co-hostess Mrs. Lilla Law.

First prize at bridge went to Mrs. Ophelia Snoddy, with Mrs. Mamie McDonald receiving low prize. Miss Mary Hansen won first prize at five hundred and Mrs. Maud Sebastian won low prize. Doorknize was won by Mrs. Lilla Law.

Present for the afternoon were the Mesdames Bess McDonald, Millie West, Iva Holman, Maud Sebastian, Nannie Myers, Hattie Cozad, Alice Tolhurst, Mary Rinman, Helena Bungar, Fay Holland, Annie Scott, Nellie Reeves, Lilla Law, Ophelia Snoddy, Mary Hansen, Betty McMary, Fannie Taylor, Anna Ream, Florence Crawford, Anna Arnold, Mamie McDonald, Mary Schlamman, Alice Garlick and the hostess.

Another card party is being planned by the Sycamores for June 2 at the home of Mrs. Annie Arnold at 405 South Birch street.

DRAMA SECTION HAS MEETING

Drama section of Santa Ana Woman's club had an enjoyable meeting this week at which time it elected Mrs. William Dennis to lead its activities during the coming year, taking the place of Mrs. J. D. Watkins. Mrs. Leonard Holman will follow Mrs. Glenn Hulme as secretary.

Mrs. G. W. Paes was hostess at this May meeting, concluding the session of dramatic work with a refreshment course. The section will hold a picnic June 5 at a place to be announced later.

Present as guests of Mrs. Paes were the Mesdames J. D. Watkins, Edna Wells, William Kuhn, Glenn Cole, R. W. Cole, A. C. Keck, Earl Lepper, Leland Ewbank, Earl Ladd, Leonard Holman, William Dennis, and E. M. Waycott.

MIDSHIPMEN COST Cost of training midshipmen for a year at the United States naval academy is $3458 apiece, estimates just placed before the house appropriation committee disclose.

Mrs. Vorhis Named Poetry Leader

Mrs. Louis Vorhis was chosen yesterday by members of Modern Poetry section of Robell to guide their activities during the coming year, succeeding Mrs. Horace Scott. Also elected were Miss Vanche Plumb, assistant leader; Miss Mabel Whiting, treasurer, and Mrs. S. B. Marshall, secretary. Mrs. Robert Northcross will continue to serve as program chairman, a position she has held for years.

Yesterday's meeting was in the pretty home of Mrs. Alan Revell, and at the close of the afternoon she was assisted in serving a tea course by her daughter, Miss Eloise.

Featured speaker of the day was the retiring leader, Mrs. Scott, who gave a most brilliant review of "The Golden Fleece of California," narrative poem by Edgar Lee Masters, the poet who, born in 1869, practiced law until 1920.

It was announced that Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch and Mrs. Aldric Worswick will hostess the group in June, at which time Mrs. Vorhis will review the work of Marya Zaturenska, Pulitzer Prize poet.

Present yesterday were two guests, Mrs. Howard S. Beardsley and Mrs. Elsie Daley, and the Mesdames Edith Cloyes, Alice Hatch, S. B. Marshall, E. M. Nealey, Robert Northcross, Lillian Pritchett, Alan Revell, Horace Scott, Harwood Sharp, Edith Thatcher, Aldric Worswick, Emmett Elliott, Louis Vorhis, John Tammann, and the Mesdames Beulah May, Vanche Plumb, Mabel Whiting, Ruth Rowland, and Verna Wells.

TUX AND GOWN IS SATURDAY

Announcement was made today by directors of Tux and Gown dancing club that the group's quarterly formal dance is to be this coming Saturday at 9 p. m., at the Santa Ana Country club.

Lee Mann's orchestra will play for the event, and members are reminded that annual dues are payable and that no guests will be permitted.

expedition on which the ensemble, subsidized by a wealthy operator, recently undertook around the world.

CERTIFIED MILK

Certified milk is truly the product of the medical profession, being conceived more than 40 years ago by a practicing physician. Because of the care and supervision taken in its production, it is the logical choice of discriminating physicians who prescribe it for infant feeding, for malnourished persons, and for consumers of all ages who desire the best milk obtainable.

LABORATORY CONTROLLED

Certified Milk must be approved by a County Medical Milk Commission. Important phases of this supervision are the rigid chemical and bacteriological examinations and tests to which Certified Milk undergoes. And tests not only apply to the milk but to the cows, and include regular examinations of all employees' health.

PURITY ASSURED

For your child, you naturally demand the safest, cleanest of milk. When you order Certified Milk, you can be assured that it is produced under exacting conditions which make its purity and quality unquestioned. Excelsior is proud of its Certified Milk... and the service it can give you.

"ANYTHING FROM CANVAS"

New, modern factory of the Max Akers Santa Ana Tent & Awning Co., where anything made from canvas is manufactured.

Forsaking the glamour of the outdoor show business—where he worked in various departments for many years—Max V. Akers looked around for a permanent home and settled in Santa Ana. It is almost 20 years ago since Mr. Akers came here and in the company of J. D. Moss, established the Santa Ana Tent & Awning Co., Ltd., which is one of the largest firms of its kind in this entire area. The company, which is located at 1626-1628 South Main street, manufactures canvas products which are in great demand throughout the entire state. Retail and wholesale departments, and the factory, are located at the South Main address, and there are agents in other communities. Mr. Moss later severed his connection with the business.

Awnings, tents, and lawn and garden furniture are the principle products manufactured by Mr. Akers' firm, although he makes a score of other articles. The company manufactures special custom-manufacturing for similar firms. The organization also does wa-terproofing and makes heavy truck covers and other tarpaulins. Cush-ions of all kinds, including the inner-spring type are manufac-tured. Almost 100 per cent of the bags used by the newspaper car-rier boys in Orange county are made in this plant. And there is hardly any article made of canvas which is not included in the list of products made by the Santa

Dr. Smith Is Veteran Dentist

If you cannot learn how to find a toothache in 38 years, you'll never find out how to locate it, if one is to judge by the expe-rience of Dr. A. B. Smith, Santa Ana dentist, whose office is at 106 1/2 East 4th street. During his almost two score of years' practice in California, Dr. Smith has learned all the symptoms, according to his friends.

That's the reason why Dr. Smith's office is always crowded with patients. Sons and grand-sons of his original patients come into his office and want the same kind, efficient service which Dr. Smith gave to their parents and grandparents. The only way Dr. Smith can get away from the descendants of his old patients fol-lowing him around, is to retire, and Dr. Smith says that he won't do that until he can treat his first great-grandchild.

Bird Farm Attracts Many Local Visitors

One of the sights which attract thousands of visitors to England each year is the area around Rich-mond, in Surrey. In this area, which is nowhere more than 50 miles from London, are located many hundreds of aviaries. And in these aviaries are found, not birds of sweet voice and tropical plumage, but game birds—pres-ent, quail and snipe—because Eng-land, being less than 300 miles

Bates Offers Fine Furniture Service

Services of all kinds for both home and office furniture are of-fered by the Furniture Service company, 1732 West 5th street, in Santa Ana. This firm which is a member of the Builder's Exchange, is managed by M. E. Bates, who is a skilled craftsman in furniture refinishing and repairing.

One of the interesting phases of the work done by the Furniture Service company is modernizing of out-of-date pieces of furniture of years ago and making it ultra-modern in a short while and at a very low expense. For instance they put authentic Monterey fire-places on the furnitures of 30 years ago. Antiques are restored to their former glory by being re-paired, refinished and re-uphol-stered by the Furniture Service company.

Where the surface of the furni-ture has been marred or scratched in any way, it can be restored by Mr. Bates to its original state by burning in touching up, and French polishing.

this company handles tropical and songbirds, the heart of the organi-zation is concerned with the prop-agation of game birds. It is true that they handle tropical and gold fish, water plants and flowers, but the heart of the management is in the supplying of game birds to estate owners who want to be sure that their sons and grand-sons will enjoy the same fine shooting they had when they were youngsters.

Army Mule Not Yet Extinct Despite Truck's Invasion

During parade of military units at Camp Lewis, near Tacoma, Washington, two mule teams pulling supply wagons past officers proved beyond any reasonable doubt that this beast of burden has not entirely given way to the motor's pull. Three thousand soldiers also passed in review.

made models of lawn swings, lawn and porch chairs and lawn and beach umbrellas. Mr. Akers ex-plained that customers may choose their own patterns and colors with-out additional cost, so as to have a touch of individuality to their homes. So well have these prod-ucts gained popular favor that the Santa Ana Tent & Awning com-pany does considerable wholesale

Ana Tent & Awning company. According to Mr. Akers, his firm buys the majority of its can-vas direct from the mills, elim-inating the jobber, and thus per-mitting lower prices for the cus-tomer. The phone number of the company is 207.

Visitors are always welcome and their showroom is a worth-while spot to visit.

square, and having 36,000,000 pop-ulation, must raise its game birds to replace those so cruelly slaugh-tered in the past. And America, although it has been settled just about 300 years, is finding itself in the same position as Eng and

Home Stretch Is Strewn With Faded Hopes...

'DOC' SMITH'S STARS WIN AGAIN, 13-2

Battering two rival hurlers—including a former teammate, Earl Morrill—for eight of 12 hits and every run in four innings, Manager Ray (Doc) Smith's Santa Ana Stars buried Torrance National Supply company club, 13 to 2, in softball at the Municipal bowl last night.

It took only one inning for the Stars to adjust their sights. Al Hunter, imported Long Beach pitcher, worked well for six innings, allowed six hits and two runs. Armand (Lefty) Hanson went the rest of the way for the Stars.

SIX RUNS IN SECOND
Six runs were scored by Santa Ana in the second inning after Torrance had looked dangerous in the first by scoring their two runs on a home-run with a man on base. Tommy Young hit to right field, "Bono" Koral drew a walk, Frank Lukor singled to center, scoring Young. Bud Baker was out, short to first, but Koral scored.

Hunter walked, Bob Mott was safe on a fielder's choice, which scored Hunter. Manager Smith was passed and then Tommy Lacy singled to right for another run. Fred Cartwright, batting clean-up, doubled to center to send Smith and Lacy across.

Koral tripled to open the third, Baker walked, an error on Hunter's hit scored Koral. Baker and Hunter scored on a triple error by the second baseman on Mott's out.

LACY SINGLES
In the fourth, Lacy singled one into left and with two out Koral singled to left and an error on the play scored Lacy. Lukor was safe on another miscue and a passed ball scored Koral.

Jimmy Coates, former Stacker, will bring his Union Oil company club of Wilmington into the bowl for a final tune-up for Smith's team Friday night before the National league season opens Tuesday night with Orange's Cubs here.

That's Not Baseball!

Some of baseball's old-timers, who would play three and four hours before breaking a 2-2 or 4-4 deadlock in the 18th or 19th inning, would turn over in their graves today if they knew the Santa Ana led at least a one-team campaign to restore the game to the regular distance of nine.

Some prep clubs are slow starters, play their best ball in the eighth and ninth when the "heat" is on. Then, too, a team often is the victim of an opponent's rally in an early inning.

Why should the Citrus Belt league, of which Coach Joe Koegler's Stars are members, play seven-inning games when most of the other leagues, including the all-powerful Coast Preparatory, sponsor nine-inning tilts? It takes a big kick out of the game, also handicaps a seven-inning team that gains the playoffs where nine-inning games are played.

Koegler is not to blame for the outlaying ruling. He prefers nine innings, and probably will attack the ruling at the next C. B. L. meeting. All real baseball fans will agree that the change is necessary.

Conrad in, Osborne Out

Frances Conrad will be in and Pete Osborne out of Manager Joe Rodgers' lineup when Huntington Beach inaugurates the 1938 National Nightball league season against San Bernardino at Huntington Beach Tuesday.

Having reduced from 210 to 192, and again showing his old hustle, Conrad, who quarter-backed for "Tex" Oliver's Southern California prep football champs in Santa Ana in '31, will start at third base for the Oilers, Rodgers said.

Osborne is under a physician's care with a skin disease, and his rightfield post will be filled by Glenn Kelley, the hard-slugging veteran acquired from San Bernardino. Orv Schuchardt and George Murray will man the other pastures. Poisonous Venn Botts, who has been hurling in the after-dinner circuit for the past 10 years, will start on the firing line, with "Fuzzy" Errington in reserve against San Bernardino's great southpaw, Bob Fowler. Al Rebozo will be back of the line with Southpaw Bob Smith on first, Henry (Call Me Hen) Thery on second, Manager Rodgers (himself) at shortstop, and the aforementioned Conrad on third. What a formidable lineup! The score? Huntington Beach, 3; San Bernardino, 0.

CARDS, GEHRIG AND A'S ALL COME TO LIFE

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The old Gas House Gang isn't what it used to be. In fact, it hardly has recovered from the shock received when its great mouthpiece, Dizzy Dean, was sold up the river to Chicago. But with a flock of new Gas House Hitters beginning to show promise, the St. Louis Cardinals may have their usual piece to say about the National league pennant race.

Latest to encourage the fans' hope that St. Louis may cause trouble in the National league pennant chase are Lon Warneke, veteran right-hander, and the new battery of Bliss McGee and Herb Bremer.

Warneke has won his last two starts in fine style. McGee, getting his first trial as a starting pitcher, probably clinched a job as a ball player as well as a pitcher in Pepper Martin's band when he limited the Boston Bees to six hits and fanned six to outpoint the able Lou Fette, 3 to 2. Bhemer, who may fill the Cards' demand for a regular catcher, provided the home stretch. Dauber, from William DuPont, Jr.'s Foxcatcher farm, and Myron Selznick's Can't Wait are two more that like to run fastest when headed for home.

Three, and possibly four, of the horses which finished out of the money in the trial are expected to complete the field. Following the race, trainers of Mrs. M. E. O'Toole's Elveto of Chicago, Bert Friend's Co-Sport of Lockland, Ohio, and Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Mountain Ridge said their charges would be in the big parade. They finished fourth, fifth and sixth, respectively.

A. G. Tarn, Canadian owner and trainer of Wise Fox, the seventh place horse, was still in the fence, while Mrs. Payne Whitney's Redbreast was rated a doubtful starter as he finished last while being left 15 lengths behind the field after the break.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Paul Derringer, Reds—Pitched eight-hitter that stopped Giants' winning streak at 11 straight and paced 12-2 victory with pair of singles and long fly that drove in four runs.

Ken Keltner, Indians—Blasted two homers and single, latter sending in deciding run, and batted in six tallies in 10-9 victory over Senators.

Forrest Pressnell, Dodgers—Scattered Pirates' ten hits in gaining 7-2 decision.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees—Broke out of slump with home run and double that helped whip Browns, 5-1. Lefty Grove, Red Sox—Struck out six and helped score winning run in ten-innings, 4-3 defeat of Tigers.

THE CHIEF AND STAGEHAND NO. 1 CHOICES

Howard Entry Still Liked By Public For Kentucky Race

By ORLO ROBERTSON
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The stage is all set, the principal actors selected, and only a minor role or two remain to be filled for the 64th matinee performance of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs Saturday at Churchill.

It'll be a small caste, probably not more than a dozen, but it'll be one studied with stars vying for the spotlight that'll be thrown on the winner of America's most famous horse race. Then, too, there is always the possibility that some minor actor will steal the show, when they come thundering through that last quarter-mile.

Eleven horses are considered definite starters, and there is a possibility that another one or two may be added. If less than 12 face the barrier, it'll be the small-facel field since Twenty Grand hung up the Derby record of 2:01.4-5 in 1931.

Firmly entrenched as the public choice for the $50,000 show over a mile and a quarter is the combination of Stagehand and The Chief, owned by Maxwell Howard of Dayton, Ohio, and trained by the one and only Earl Sando. Play, the leading roles is nothing new for Sando and Stagehand. The Earl did it three times at Downs when he was a jockey. Stagehand starred in the rich Santa Anita derby and handicap last winter.

But to The Chief it'll be something new. Until yesterday's trial stakes he was considered just a good running mate for Stagehand. The experts were saying he'd probably set a burning pace for six furlongs or a mile, and then drop out in favor of his more illustrious stablemate.

Now these same experts are not so sure but what The Chief will be able to take care of matters for himself. He did it yesterday with a track record equalling performance that whipped Herbert M. Woolf's Lawrin by a nose and left Stagehand five lengths in his wake. The time for the mile was 1:35.4-5, after The Chief and Lawrin had reeled off the first six furlongs in the almost unbelievable time of 1:10.3-5.

Lawrin was the only other leading Derby contender in the field, but his race, run under the handicap of wearing four bar plates to protect tender feet, indicated a new Derby record is within the realm of possibility. When Trainer Ben Jones removes the plates Saturday the Kansas City-owned colt should be ready to really burn oil.

There is no lack of speed and stamina among the other ranking candidates. Warren Wright's Bull Lea and Hal Price Headley's Menow tangled in a mile and an eighth stake at Kneeland last week, with the latter setting the pace and the former the track record.

FIGHTING FOX'S SPEED

Fighting Fox, ace of William Woodward's Belair stud, has speed, and if he's anything like his famous brother, Gallant Fox, he also has plenty of what it takes in the home stretch. Dauber, from William DuPont, Jr.'s Foxcatcher farm, and Myron Selznick's Can't Wait are two more that like to run fastest when headed for home.

Three, and possibly four, of the horses which finished out of the money in the trial are expected to complete the field. Following the race, trainers of Mrs. M. E. O'Toole's Elveto of Chicago, Bert Friend's Co-Sport of Lockland, Ohio, and Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Mountain Ridge said their charges would be in the big parade. They finished fourth, fifth and sixth, respectively.

A. G. Tarn, Canadian owner and trainer of Wise Fox, the seventh place horse, was still in the fence, while Mrs. Payne Whitney's Redbreast was rated a doubtful starter as he finished last while being left 15 lengths behind the field after the break.

Wilkins Fans 12, Yields 4 Hits, But Saints Lose

POMONA PREP NINE BAGS 2-0 SHUTOUT

Joe Koegler's Club Eliminated From Citrus Belt Chase

By PAUL WRIGHT

They're beginning to call Tommy Wilkins the "Hard Luck Kid" of the Citrus Belt league.

Mowing down 12 rivals on strike-outs over an abbreviated seven-inning route, and limiting the Red Devils to four scattered singles, the curve-ball wonder of Santa Ana High school's baseball won't take care of matters for Pomona's prep, 2 to 0, in a league assignment at Clayton field here yesterday.

NO PLATE POWER
Wilkins was credited—or discredited—with the defeat, but it was his teaming array that really lost it for him. The Saints, showing no signs of plate power, probably could not have hit a basketball with a foot-wide pole the way they were swinging at times yesterday.

When their pitcher continues to average nearly two strikeouts an inning, all the Saints need to win games are a few hits—their fielding has been good. Even their batting was above par in exhibition games.

The 2-0 shutout by Pomona, which seemed to win, only added insult to injury for Wilkins, who dropped a 4-3 heart-breaker in 10 innings at Riverside two weeks ago. He gets a crack at San Bernardino, championship contender, at Clayton field Friday afternoon, wind up the '38 schedule against Redlands here the following Friday.

TWO RUNS IN SIXTH
Pomona pushed across two runs in the sixth to win. Monnie, second-baseman, was safe on Wilkins' error, Johnson, leftfielder, fanned. Hall, shortstop, singled infield, and Powell followed with a single, scoring Monnie. Tietworth, catcher, rapped another single, permitting Hall to scamper across the plate with Pomona's second and final run.

The Saints, offensively weak yesterday, never seriously threatened.

OILERS BLANK RIVERSIDE

Fresh from a 4-0 shutout over Riverside's one-time National leaguers at Huntington Beach last night, Manager Joe Rodgers today pointed his Oilers to their '38 opener with San Bernardino at Huntington Beach next Tuesday. The 36 champions, who lost their Elwynn "Fuzzy" Errington and Venn Botts, in rare form, limited Riverside to two hits, Errington being invincible in the first five. They will share the assignment at Riverside Friday. Glenn Kelley, hard-hitting outfielder, and Catcher Al Rebozo, whiled doubles for the Oilers last night.

TUSTIN SHADES WILLARD, 9-8

By WINSON PORTEOUS

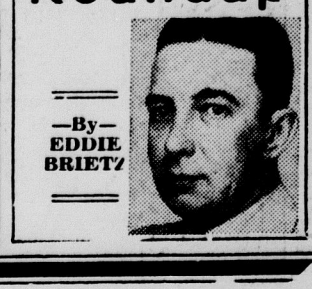

The Willard Junior High school nine bowed to the Tustin High school team yesterday, 9-8, in a seven-inning game. The score was 5-0 at the last of the third when Frank Oviedo and Joe Lara gained bases. Milford Dreblow drove a hot liner through third base and scored both runners. In the same inning Elvin Hoots hit a three-bagger and scored Alan Hadell and Milford Dreblow.

SPORTS Roundup

NEW YORK. (AP)—Col. Henry P. Edwards, demon press agent for the American league, sends out the following blurb: "Babe Ruth did; and so what?"

To which Art Cohn of the Oakland Tribune replies: "Babe Ruth did; and so what?"

Johnston is back from the coast hollering his head off that Bob Pastor was robbed in his opening western skirmish with Lou Novs.

Johnston also is relaying a choice bit of gossip which is interesting (if true). . . . He says coasters believe one of the major league franchises will be transferred to Los Angeles. . . . Jimmy's hottest clue is that George Preston Marshall, the Washington laundry tycoon, who owns the Washington football Redskins, is included in the syndicate.

S. A. WOMEN GOLFERS IN 2ND ROUND

These four women, all veteran golfers, remained in the running for the Santa Ana Country club championship which went into the second round today.

Mrs. Doty eliminated Mrs. P. H. McVicar, Mrs. Baker defeated Mrs. L. H. Robinson, Mrs. Bakre trimmed Mrs. Rella Woodington and Mrs. McFadden eliminated Mrs. R. W. Weston in the championship flight.

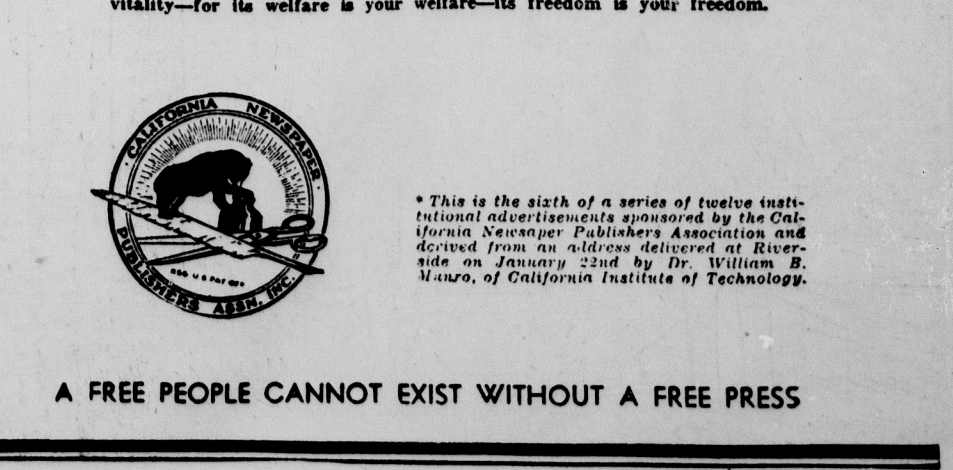

In the first flight, Mrs. E. R. Kerley defeated Mrs. C. H. Chapman, Mrs. Don Andrews defeated Mrs. Ludy Schaffer and Mrs. L. H. Bushard and Mrs. Jack McClure drew the first-round byes.

Pairings were being completed today by Roy Renwick, club pro, for the annual men's high-low golf tournament.

Liberty WAS NEVER EXTINGUISHED Over Night

FREE GOVERNMENT gives way to dictatorship by gradual stages. In every country where dictators now oppress a regimented people, the death of freedom was preceded by two significant steps. First, newspapers were throttled, terrorized, and censored into subservience. Second, the voice of the people became mute, and instead there is heard the voice of interested government propaganda. Free expression of public opinion became illegal and autocracy now tells the people what to think. Opposition has become hopeless because it has become inarticulate. America is still the land of individual liberty . . . but Americans cannot remain a free people unless freedom of the press continues. Regardless of what your own political convictions may be, you and your newspapers are partners in safeguarding the American democratic ideal. Support your newspaper—protect its independence and vitality—for its welfare is your welfare—its freedom is your freedom.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

By JOHN HIX

UNDERGROUND LIGHTNING
Many strange pranks played by lightning have been recorded in the past and one of the strangest is the tragic instance that occurred in South Africa in December, 1913--4000 feet below ground! Few persons would think of being struck by lightning four-fifths of a mile down in the earth, and no such thoughts were in the minds of a group of native diamond miners in one of South Africa's great Rand Mines on that December day. No word of the storm raging above came to the men, hard at work on the bottom level. The noise of their incessant digging and hammering to place a charge of dynamite drowned out the echoing peals of thunder that drifted down the main shaft. There was a sudden flash in the shaft; lightning had struck the hoist tower, sped down the steel elevator cable. Without a warning it jumped to the steel rails of the hand-car tracks, raced unerringly to the dynamite cable! Of 12 men working the level, four, burned and terrified, were taken to the surface to tell how the other eight had died in the tragic blast. Cattle sold recently at San Francisco were trucked 737 miles from Utah in thirty hours.

Parking Problem Solution

New York City's method of liquidating the parking problem should interest Santa Anans who spend a large part of their lives looking for a place to park.

The great big city has established a system of "express" streets, from which parking is banned.

"Express" streets have been on trial since Jan. 3, and both police and motorists seem to like the idea. As a result, more arteries of the same type are planned.

Experts who proposed the plan claim that it solves much of the congestion grief by eliminating parking on narrow and much travelled streets, and that it forces a greater use of off-street areas to accommodate not only the cars usually parked on the streets but also those of which the owners are driving vainly around the block in an effort to find a place to stop.

They carry the idea one step further by suggesting that all vacant and low rental real estate be converted into parking spaces.

There is little doubt but that parking is the prime cause of traffic congestion.

Only 18 cars can park in a block 100 yards long. This means 36 machines to both sides of the block. But when the cars are banned, the space left provides pavement enough to handle 2000 moving cars during the hour.

Thus it is reasonably argued that a few parked cars clog the traffic along the street and slow up traffic for many times that many more automobiles.

There is an honest objection from merchants in a city of the size of Santa Ana, of course, to the effect that elimination of street parking here would eliminate a part of their business.

Taking something from each side of the case, however, the logical conclusion seems to be that adequate off-street parking should be provided for machines of downtown employees and others so as to make room for shoppers and short-time visitors.

When that is done—and it is being attempted now by a combination committee from the city and the chamber—life will be more pleasant for a lot of motorists.

Many bricklayers and plumbers are spoiled by being provided with a college education, says an Eastern educator. Yes, and many more are spoiled by not being provided with jobs.

More Pie, Madame?

An eastern lady with a good old Knickerbocker name wrote recently to the editor of her newspaper suggesting what she called "a most constructive formula for world economic cure."

She believes, so she said, that women, in streamlining themselves, have shrunk the market for countless commodities to a point that creates a more or less permanent "recession."

If the female of the species would go in for curves again rather than straight lines—the full curves of grandma's day—"immediately," wrote the eastern lady, "there would be a marked demand for commodities. Think of the increased tonnage of sugar, bread, potatoes, butter, milk and other present-day bugaboos of the dieting demagogue."

"Imagine the need for millions and millions of extra yards of wool, cotton, silk and other materials. More furs and leather! Additional pearls for necklaces! Bigger chairs! Roomier automobiles! Substantial increase in demand for machinery and durable goods!"

"The employment problem would be solved. Everybody would attend to business. The obligato of feminine laughter to a demand for a second helping of pie would obliterate entirely thoughts of hostility, class-consciousness, persecution, and good neighborliness would reign throughout the world."

We have not been able to make up our mind whether the writing lady is spoofing the streamlined sisterhood, or the editor.

Somebody else once wrote that many a true word is spoken in jest. Maybe she has something there. We wonder.

Harry Hopkins says the national income has dropped $12,000,000,000 in six months. Of course he doesn't mean incomes of those on public payrolls.

It Will Help the Children

The low-cost housing proposal for Orange county at last has been turned over by the supervisors to the district attorney for legal preparation and signs are that things may start to hum soon.

As numerous groups requesting a low cost housing and slum clearance project in this area have pointed out, the program is worthwhile in more ways than one.

It is humanitarian in that it gives healthful, sanitary surroundings to families that now live in squalor. It is esthetic, if you want to use that term, for no citizen likes to see the slum areas remain in some of our city and county districts.

But above all, the plan is commendable in tending toward more complete opportunity for American children by providing uniformly better home environments.

Union Fight in Movies

By Westbrook Pegler

NEW YORK.—A few critical individuals in the mechanical and unskilled lines of work in the moving picture business in Hollywood are waging a fight against the leadership of George T. Browne, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage employees, and Willie Bioff, his personal representative on the coast. The Alliance is very powerful in the movie industry, as it controls, among other operations, the projection of the movies onto the theater screens.

It is undemocratic toward its rank-and-file members, and in one department its initiation fee of $1000 is believed to be the highest in the country. The members' photographs are required to pay $1000 to join the union and an income tax of 10 per cent of their earnings. Members of the union with whom I am personally acquainted have an understandable reluctance to criticize the leadership or management of the organization or demand changes in rules or practice.

The Alliance has cast covetous glances at the moving picture actors' union, which would yield rich returns to the treasury if the actors were taxed on their income at the same rate. The actors, however, are aware of this interest and have threatened to go to the floor and fight for their autonomy if the Alliance should make such a move.

Browne became head of the Chicago moving picture machine operators' union after the elimination of Thomas E. Maloy, a racketeer who was removed from office by a sawed-off shotgun, locally known as a blast furnace, on February 5, 1935.

LABOR LEADERS

Maloy was a prosperous labor leader who had just stopped in at a stable to look over his saddle horses when he was killed. He was driving his own car along the outer drive on the south side when a small sedan came alongside and both barrels of the blast furnace were fired at him. The range was so close that the parliamentarians affecting Mr. Maloy's removal almost shoved the barrels down his throat, but even after this emphatic repudiation of his leadership he received pistol bullets by way of lagniappe.

Five months later two-gun Louie Alteri was removed from the leadership of the theatrical janitors' union with similar abrupt emphasis. Mr. Alteri was leaving his duplex studio apartment to go to his office and was about to enter his car when he was hit from a blast furnace and a carbine interrupted his labors on behalf of the humble janitors. He died promptly, and the police discovered the guns on a bed in a rented room across the street, where the committee had been waiting. The men apparently went down a back stairway in leaving, for they were not seen after the push.

The Chicago police expressed a belief that both Maloy and Alteri were removed by the same opposition.

BROWNE'S ESCORT

Bloff, a former associate of Jack Zuta, "Dago" Lawrence Mangana and other influential leaders in the social and cultural life of Chicago's west side, had been serving as Browne's escort or companion after Browne's accession to the leadership of Maloy's union. Bloff is well known to the Chicago police by reason of several official interviews, and certain members of the theatrical trades in Hollywood have a feeling that the Chicago background makes him unacceptable as the personal representative of Mr. Browne in charge of their affairs. They may be too fastidious, but that is the way they feel about the matter, and they have been trying to rally the rank and file to stand up in meeting and elect officers out of the working membership.

Although Mr. Alteri was the first Chicago gangster to wear a bullet-proof vest, he appears to have dressed hurriedly or carelessly on the day of his removal from office, for he did not have it on at the time. However, that is merely a sartorial note. It would have made no difference, because the committee, doubtless knowing of this little affectation shot him only in the head.

Although Mr. Browne is the supreme boss of the Alliance, the opposition for the time being is concentrated on Mr. Bloff, with his delegated powers as personal representative. There is a feeling that, somehow, Mr. Bloff is not the type and that a man suitable for the job could be found to administer the affairs of thousands of workers in a very wealthy union.

CLUB LIFE

Three men returned very late from the club. Determined to see each other home they took a taxi to one address, lined themselves shoulder to shoulder on the doorstep, pressed the bell and waited. When the indignant wife appeared she was invited to pick out her husband.

"It's you . . . you brute!" she said furiously, pointing to the man in the middle.

"Oh, no," said one of the flankers, earnestly, "you can't take that one away, because if you do my friend and I will fall down."

WASHINGTON.—All efforts by California congressmen to keep congress from cutting the tariff on lemons, limes, oranges and other citrus fruits had failed today. Senator Rainey of Illinois declared the lemon industry in California needed no protection, and it appeared the Democratic bloc was strong enough to push the tariff measure through.

ST. LOUIS.—The peace congress symposium on disarmament took an unexpected turn last night when Andrew B. Humphrey, secretary of the American peace and arbitration league, and Henry A. Dedman, secretary of the army and navy league, took issue with the speakers and declared their theory of disarmament impracticable. Booker T. Washington, negro educator, was one of the speakers.

A lot of politicians as well as actors owe their success to the brilliant mind of one publicity agent. Those fellows can think up more ways to make a sparkling hero out of a drab client.

One of 'em walked into a political candidate's office the other day and asked the politician to give him a job as publicity director in his campaign. The politician drew himself up indignantly and said "I am conducting a straight forward, honest, bunkless campaign."

Government to Receive Reorganization Bill, Push It Through House; Election Issue if Defeated

WASHINGTON.—The triumphphant foes of the President's government reorganization bill have a surprise in store for them.

Barring a last-minute change in secret plans, administration leaders will shortly revive the legislation in the house and launch a new offensive to write it into law. Two factors are behind this decision.

1. The belief in the inner circle that there has been a powerful popular reaction against the turnover of the measure, and that a number of the congressmen who voted with the opposition now regret they did so and are eager to climb back on the Roosevelt band wagon.

2. That even if the bill is rejected a second time, it would be good political strategy for the administration to make the issue clear-cut by forcing the boys to stand up and be counted again.

If the house stands pat and refuses to give ground on the legislation, the President has definitely determined to make government reorganization a battle-royal in this year's elections.

Note—Inside word among the six Wisconsin progressives who bolted the leadership of Senator Bob La Follette on the bill is that at least three of them, under the hammering they have received from constituents and the party press, have reversed themselves and will vote with the administration if they get another chance.

MATRIARCHS
Adolf Berle, Brain trust assistant secretary of state, was claiming to a group of friends on one of his favorite topics—the awe-inspiring superiority of Berle brain power.

"There are 26 traceable generations of Berles," he boasted, "and the last six have obtained livelihood entirely by intellect."

"It must have been the women they married," observed Mrs. Randolph Berle, who had been listening patiently.

One man to keep an eye on, in placing any long-distance money from the next governor of New York, is Democratic Congressman James M. Mead of Buffalo.

The President and Jim Farley have been giving him a careful once-over, with the idea that he may be the compromise candidate acceptable both to up-State Democrats and to Laborites in New York City, and finally not unacceptable to Tammany.

Jim Mead is an important figure in congress, has been a staunch supporter of Roosevelt policy, but will require a considerable build-up before he can consider in the entire state.

This does not mean Solicitor General Bob Jackson is out of the running. It is still almost anybody's race.

Note—Jim Mead has introduced in the House the most vicious censorship law in years, giving the post office department the right to prosecute censorship cases at the place where the book or newspaper is received. Thus, the post office might pick Dayton, Tenn., scene of the famous Scopes monkey trial, as the place in which to try its case, merely because someone sent a book through the mails to Dayton.

The Mailbag

Public opinion, or what somebody in office imagines to be public opinion, is our ruler. If public opinion is active, the politicians and people sit up and take notice. There is a definite need for outspoken talking and thinking on public matters. Honest, intelligent free discussion of our problems is immensely useful. So that every citizen may have his say and contribute to the formation of public opinion, The Journal invites letters to The Mailbag. Please limit communications to 350 words. The editor reserves the right to shorten all letters in excess of that length.

BUSINESS IMPOTENT?

To the Editor: In the issue of April 12 an editorial in The Journal urges the President to "Give Business a Chance." The business men have promised that they would bring prosperity if they "had a chance."

The writer would be glad if The Journal would elucidate how business starting up would end the "recession."

As we well remember, business had things their own way before the crash of 1929. As far as any restrictions by the government was concerned, business might have gone on indefinitely.

Then when the workers, even with good wages prevailing, were unable, with the help of the general public, to buy all that the workers, with the aid of labor-saving machinery, had produced, the cry of "overproduction" arose.

As is well known, there were plenty of people wanting to buy low wages, who would buy the products? Those on the dole, The Journal advocates, could not buy any more than they do now.

The labor-saving machinery put in operation since 1929 has displaced more men; the reduction of hours of labor per week has simply allowed more workers to participate in the labor. It has not increased the money earned by labor to any appreciable extent.

It is an obvious fact that as long as the government kept up employment by the WPA, PWA and relief, besides the money spent by those who received the soldiers' bonus, business activity increased.

Then when the constant cry of "economy and balance the budget" induced the administration to curtail many of these activities, the "recession" was on.

The writer a year ago, when the curtailment was being inaugurated, prophesied that we would soon have another depression, very probably in the autumn. As we all know, it did, and has grown worse ever since.

Any close observer should be able to perceive that money in circulation among those who want to buy but have not the wherewithal is the only thing that can keep business going. Business can never enjoy full health when replaced by labor-saving machinery, which produces more in less time than ever before.

Neither does business pay wages enough to buy back what the wage-earners produce, so that soon there would be the same cry of overproduction, and another slump would be on.

Big business has always made the rich richer and the poor poorer, and every depression has widened the gap. It seems absurd to expect permanent prosperity by "Giving Business a Chance."

TRAIN FOR HELL

To the Editor: Where will the unrepentant sinner abide after death? In an endless burning hell too awful to be described, by human language. The Son of Man shall send for His angels, and shall gather out of His kingdom all things that do offend and those which do iniquity and shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. (Matt. 13:41-42.)

Now, dear friends, which route will you take? The Damnation railway to Hell. Many miles and much time saved by this route. Terrific scenery, through dismal swamps, Murderer's Gap, Hangman's Gorge, etc., reaching the Valley of the Shadow of Death at midnight, plunging its passengers into eternal woe. Main depot, corner Unbelief and Disobedience streets, Special for Ingersoll park, and Theaters. Theater street, Blasphemous hall. Smokers' furnace, Sample Room square. Extra train on Sunday. This train stops at worldly depot, where proud, formal church members take a sleeping car for hell.

GEO. PHILLIPS.

I think the first lesson I learned in friend winning was from a little, yellow-haired dog back on the farm in Missouri. My father bought him for fifty cents from a Mr. Falls who was a neighbor of ours. I named him Tippy.

He was with me constantly, chasing rabbits, catching rats and hunting possums and squirrels. One day at Rose Hill school I got into some mischief and was ashamed and humiliated and kept in after hours and the teacher gave me a thrashing. It did not hurt much, but I was ashamed and humiliated and felt that I didn't have a friend in the world.

ONE FRIEND

The teacher had made me take off my coat, and when the affair was over I put it on and started home. There was a little hill on the way and as I trudged up this I looked and there was Tippy waiting for me. I hadn't come home and he wanted to know about it. I had one friend in the world! I started toward him, running and calling his name, barking, and wagging his tail.

He liked me, he was glad to see me, and he showed he was glad. And I showed I was glad, too. I still know of no better way to make a friend.

One night a cyclone came. Black, angry clouds rolled across the sky. Lightning flashed and leaped; thunder roared.

"Run for the cyclone cellar!" my father cried.

We got up and wrapped blankets around us and dashed for the cellar. The next morning I called Tippy. He didn't come. I looked under the porch and saw a dark object. Fear seized me. Something was wrong. I went closer. The object did not move. Tippy!

I buried him in the plum orchard near the barn on a high hill overlooking the 102 river.

A few years ago I went out to our old farm, and I found the spot where I buried him. I stood for some moments looking at it. My throat swelled. Then I walked away.

DESK MOTTOES

Tell me what mottoes you have on your desk, and I'll have a fair idea of what you are like. For example, while passing through Chicago, recently, I stopped in to see Charlie Walgreen, the erstwhile farm boy who drifted into Chicago forty years ago and now owns a chain of more than 500 drug stores. I noticed these words hanging in a frame on the wall of his private office:

"MEX ARE GREAT ONLY AS THEY ARE KIND."

What motto do you have on your desk?

Or better still, what thoughts have you in your mind? Tell me that and I'll know precisely what kind of person you are, for a man's deeds are determined by the thoughts he thinks.

But It's Science

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
ATLANTA, Ga., Editor

MINNEAPOLIS.—Introducing the diatreme.

The word is Greek, meaning to hole through. It defines a small hole blown through a rock by gases.

Nobody makes diatremes nowadays. Only volcanic gases have the power. But mining engineers have found a use for them. Diatremes are good for prospecting.

W. H. Emmons, director of the Minnesota geological survey, explains them in a report to the American Society of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers.

Where there are diatremes is a good place to look for mineral wealth.

There is gold in them there diatremes, literally. There also is, silver, tin, bismuth, copper, zinc, lead and other metals.

Into the holes after the gases blew through, seeped many different minerals in liquid form. In some instances, geologists think, the minerals even were deposited as gases.

The power behind the gas has been computed. One source is the cooling of silicate and water, underground. A drop of 80 degrees figures to make enough gas to lift a mile thickness of granite.

An end-blown flute, that is, one which has a mouthpiece at the end instead of on the side as is the case with all modern flutes, is being used to teach children to read music. This is the type of flute that was popular over 300 years ago. This instrument has a compass of two octaves and a special mouthpiece which is said to produce a good tone. Since it is simplest of all wind instruments, it has been selected as a children's instrument.
